IRIS Campus Sustainability Survey 2014

Building the York University Community: an IRIS Campus Sustainability Survey

Fill out the survey for a chance to WIN A Monthly Metropass! All York students, staff, and faculty are invited to participate. Survey open until March, 28 2014. Look for IRIS survey stations across the Keele and Glendon campuses March 18-27! Visit to complete the survey, or complete it online at <http://surveymonkey.net/s/activebystander>

About the survey:

The purpose of this survey is to help inform the university about future safety initiatives, including ones built around the concept of being an active bystander which is essentially intervening in situations when others need help. The survey's objectives are:

1. To determine how and when York community members feel comfortable intervening
2. To determine current level of knowledge about existing safety initiative on campus
3. To gather data on York University community members' safety concerns to inform future programming
4. To understand how community members feel broadly about the sense of community on campus

This survey is conducted by IRIS-the Institute for Research and Innovation in Sustainability (IRIS) in collaboration with the Office of the Vice-President Finance & Administration, with input from York community members.

We are pleased to announce that a LAPS Student Advisor is now available at the School of Public Policy & Administration (SPPA) in McLaughlin College on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 8:30am-4:30pm.

While drop-ins and all majors (including non-SPPA majors/minors) are welcome by the Rotating LAPS Advisor, you may request an appointment through the main SPPA Office at lapssppa@yorku.ca.

In your email please include your full name, York student ID number and a brief description of your questions to be addressed. If the rotating advisor will not be able to hold office hours, you will receive an email notification.

Please note: there will be no advising on Thursday March 27 2014.

Message from the Undergraduate Program Director:

Dear Students,

In the next few weeks you may be asked to participate in two different student surveys.

The first one that has been announced is the University-wide Student Engagement Survey - for this one only 1st year and 4th year undergraduate students in all programs will be asked to participate.

The second survey is specific to students who are majoring in our Bachelor of Public Administration (BPA) program. This survey is part of a cyclical program review that takes place typically every 7 years and this is the first one for the BPA given that the program with the new curriculum was launched in 2010.

I would like to urge you to participate in this survey to provide feedback on the various aspects of the program and help us in our constant efforts aimed at improving the education and services you receive at the School of Public Policy and Administration (SPPA). Please note that students who minor in Public Administration or are completing one of our Certificates at SPPA, are not eligible to participate in this survey.

Thank for your attention and we look forward to receiving your feedback.

Regards,

Dr. Alena Kimakova, Associate Professor & Undergraduate Program Director, School of Public Policy and Administration, York University

Food Drive for North York Harvest Food Bank

The Centre for Student Success and the York University NOISE Project (The New Opportunities for Innovative Student Engagement) has teamed up to organize a food drive in support of the North York Harvest Food Bank. The food collected through this drive will be provided to individuals and families seeking emergency food assistance, and help address hunger for those individuals living in the Jane & Finch community.

We invite you to participate and contribute to this worthy cause by donating food items for the drive, which runs Monday, March 17th to Friday, March 28th.

The School of Public Policy and Administration's donation bin is located in 119 McLaughlin College, and will be available Monday-Thursday 8:30am-4:30pm and Friday 9:30am-4:30pm for donations.

All donated amounts collected during this time period will be picked up and delivered to the North York Harvest Food Bank at the completion of the food drive.

Items to donate include:

- Grains, canned fish and meat, canned or dried beans, cooking oil, canned fruit and vegetables, fruit juice
- Cereals, healthy snacks and spreads, baby products such as formula, infant cereals, baby food, diapers, canned or powdered milk, spices and seasonings

We appreciate any contribution that you are able to make to help support the North York Harvest Food Bank.

Secular Governmentality, Islamophobia and the Charter of Quebec Values

March 27 2014 | 2:30-4:30pm | 280N York Lanes

With Roshan Jehangeer, PhD candidate, political science, York University, and discussant Hulya Arik, geography, York University.

The debate over the Charter of Quebec Values has raged since it was officially announced in September 2013 by the Government of Quebec. A parliamentary commission has been in place since January 2014 to hold public hearings into the proposed Charter – despite the fact that the minister behind the bill, Bernard Drainville, has said that the controversial proposal to ban public servants from wearing so-called “religious symbols” at work is not up for negotiation. Meanwhile, groups such as the Quebec Bar Association and the Quebec Human Rights Commission have publicly denounced the proposals in the Charter as being unconstitutional and illegal.

Why can't politics solve Canada's problems?

I'll bet a tart reply is at the tip of your tongue. But you're not a Member of Parliament. They're the ones who craft the laws, direct the dollars, and pledge the loyalty. So why is their respect, popularity and usefulness so low? How did one of the world's most functional democracies go so wrong?

Alison Loat and Michael MacMillan, co-founders of the think tank, Samara, interviewed 80 former MPs and came up with some surprising observations about how politics is practiced in Canada.

Their new book, Tragedy in the Commons, asks: "What exactly do we want our Members of Parliament to be doing?"

Alison Loat and Michael MacMillan will speak at the Ramsay Breakfast on Tuesday, May 6. So please join us and in doing so, vote to get to the bottom of what's wrong at the top.

When: Tuesday, May 6, 2014

Breakfast: 7:30 a.m.- 8:00 a.m.

Food for Thought: 8:00 a.m. - 8:40 a.m.

Questions & Answers: 8:40 a.m.

Done and Gone: 8:59 a.m.

Where: The University Club - 380 University Avenue, Toronto

Price: $60.00 +hst and includes your copy of "Tragedy in the Commons"

Tables of 10 also available for $600 +hst and include 10 copies of "Tragedy in the Commons"

To register, please click on the registration link below. If you register and find you can't attend, please give us 48 hours notice in advance, or unhappily, your payment will have to stick. To book your tickets, click here.

Call for Papers / Proposals

Policy & Politics Conference 2014

The challenges of leadership and collaboration in the 21st Century

Bristol Marriot Royal Hotel, College Green, Bristol
16th-17th September 2014

Call for papers deadline May 31, 2014:

The recent global financial crisis and associated austerity measures have led to a reconfiguration of the role of the state and a fundamental reshaping in the design and delivery of public services.

State and non-state actors are struggling to cope with the scale of change, the speed with which adjustments are being made and managing a range of 'wicked issues' in the absence of necessary resources. In this uncertain environment, policy issues and objectives are often ill-defined, constantly shifting and lack clear direction. There is also huge variability in the coping strategies and creative responses being enacted by public leaders in different contexts.

Partnerships, co-production and networks have been viewed as an antidote to the 'ungovernability' of complex issues in public and social policy. However, collaborative governance is also fraught with difficulties and pitfalls and raise questions about legitimacy, accountability and social justice. Within this context, the 2014 conference seeks to address questions around the themes of leadership and collaboration. We ask participants to interpret this call broadly but some key questions might include:

- What scope is there for creative leadership in contemporary policy and politics?
- How can leadership and/or collaboration drive innovation in the design and delivery of public services?
- What capacity do non-state actors have to influence policy and politics?
- What impact can leadership and collaboration have on legitimacy, accountability and social justice in public policy?
- What are the challenges for public leadership and collaboration in a global context?

Papers are invited in any areas of public or social policy. In writing their papers authors are re-requested to reflect on the conference theme.

York University's Centre for Refugee Studies: 9th Annual Student Conference

May 3-4, 2014

At COSTI Immigrant Services, 760 College Street,
Toronto, Ontario, Canada, M6G 1C4

Neither Here Nor There: Refugees, Forced Migration, and the Landscapes of Displacement

This event offers graduate and upper year undergraduate students from various disciplines, as well as researchers and practitioners with a keen interest in migration and refugee issues, an opportunity to present and discuss research and other works with like-minded individuals in a collegial, supportive, and inclusive setting.

Refugees and forced migrants navigate a tumultuous series of landscapes—both physical and abstract—throughout their long, dramatic and uncertain journeys. Whether travelling from home to camp (and beyond), from legal protection to vulnerability, or from familiar social spaces to new and chaotic networks of relations, refugees and forced migrants act and are acted upon within complex constellations of power and agency. Studying and representing these complexities can be challenging for refugees, aid workers, and academics alike. In the course of these various passages, refugees frequently find themselves in the spaces “in between”—difficult to define, conceptually challenging, and often perilously vulnerable to exploitation.

This conference aims to use the multiple, rich understandings of the term “landscape” as a conceptual launch-pad from which to explore the many facets of forced migration. Through a sharing of research, knowledge, and experience from multiple perspectives, we hope to contribute a fresh voice to the understanding of global forced migration.

A selection of strong papers submitted to the conference will be considered for publication in a peer-reviewed CRS Student Caucus publication. If you are interested in having your submission considered for publication, please indicate this in your abstract submission. Only the best submissions from the conference will be considered for inclusion in this exciting inaugural publication.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ABSTRACT SUBMISSION: Individuals or groups wishing to participate in the conference MUST submit a 250-word abstract by April 15th, 2014 (both for Canadian and international submissions). Presenters who wish to be considered for publication in the CRS Student Caucus publication must send their completed papers to crsstudentconference@gmail.com by May 2nd, 2014.

For more information about presenting at the conference please contact crsstudentconference@gmail.com or you can visit www.yorku.ca/crs.

The Innovative Designs for Accessibility \(IDeA\) competition is an initiative organized by the Council of Ontario Universities (COU), in partnership with the Government of Ontario. The province-wide competition is being overseen by the IDeA Working Group, comprised of representatives from engineering and design Faculties at several Ontario universities.

Students will vie for $3,000 in prizes, with entries that must address barriers to accessibility in five categories: attitudinal, physical/structural, information and communications, technological, and systemic. The 2013-2014 IDeA Competition features a bonus prize of $1,500 that will be awarded to the submission that best addresses barriers in para-sport and active living.

York students can find rules and registration information here. The deadline for contest submissions is April 6. Students interested in submitting their idea or concept should review the rules and criteria, register and then submit the concept by e-mail to ideas@yorku.ca by the end of the business on April 6.

Submissions will first be evaluated by York University and then successful candidates will move on to a second round of judging conducted by a panel of experts in the five categories. Evaluations will be based on innovation, cost-effectiveness and practicality. Judges will also place a premium on entries whose format itself demonstrates consideration to accessibility issues.

In the spring, a selection of finalists will be invited by COU to showcase their designs at an event that will bring together key players from industry, academia, government, the investment community, entrepreneurs and students to pursue collaborative opportunities for innovation. More details on this event are forthcoming.

Visit the IDeAS Rules and Regulations web page for submission guidelines.

Gunn Award for Best Historical Essay on International Migration in Canada

Closes April 30, 2014

In their effort to preserve the legacy of Canada's immigration history and to support continued excellence in research in Canada on international migration, the International Migration Research Centre (IMRC) and the Canadian Immigration Historical Society (CIHS) are jointly offering a $1000 award for a fourth-year or graduate-level research paper on the historical evolution of Canadian immigration policy or a historical analysis of Canadian immigration related to specific places, events, or communities.

The Gunn Award for the best historical essay on international migration in Canada is an interdisciplinary award, and will therefore consider papers from any discipline in the social sciences and humanities (e.g. sociology, political science, global studies, history, communication studies, etc.) that addresses international migration in Canada from a historical perspective. The award is national and will accept applications from graduating fourth-year students and graduate students enrolled in Canadian universities, in either French or English, from across the country. The paper will be reviewed by a committee made up of IMRC and CIHS associates/members. The award will be conferred jointly by the IMRC and the CIHS and will be given out annually in the fall.

Submission Format:

- Between 15-20 pages in length
- 1.5 line spacing
- Cover page with name and contact information (name should not appear on subsequent pages)
- Pages numbered
- Submissions in English or French
- Citation in APA or MLA style

Submit 4 copies by mail to the IMRC and 1 electronic submission to imrc.wlu@gmail.com by April 30th. For more information about last year's winner, go to <http://imrc.ca/category/gunn-award/>

Call for Nominations for the Annual National Student and Thought Leadership Awards in Public Administration

Canadian Association of Programs in Public Administration, Institute of Public Administration of Canada

The National Student and Thought Leadership Awards in Public Administration, a joint initiative of the Institute of Public Administration of Canada (IPAC) and the Canadian Association of Programs in Public Administration (CAPPA), aims to recognize talent in Canadian schools at the regional level and at the national level. It will promote excellence in public administration and showcase the top talent emerging from Canadian programs each year.

Criteria and Procedures

1. Selecting winners:

CAPPA members will solicit and judge entries (best paper, best professional report, or best graduating student, however defined) from their students, and select a winner in the undergraduate and/or graduate levels (as applicable to each department).

Representatives from the IPAC regional groups will be asked to help with the adjudication. Together, the students from each institution are the National Student Award winners.

2. Giving local recognition:

We encourage programs, departments and schools to hold recognition events for the winners. Again, you may want to approach your local IPAC group to provide recognition. In some cases the local regional group may have more than one university in their catchment area, so the range of winners will be broader.

3. National recognition on web sites:

The winning entries will be celebrated by IPAC and CAPPa on their respective websites. The names, contact information, brief bios, and synopsis of the accomplishment of the top graduate and/or undergraduate students will be forwarded to CAPPa at the contact point noted below. The deadline for receiving these packages is April 1, 2014.

4. The IPAC National Conference, June 1st – 4th, 2014, Edmonton, Alberta:

The winners from every program will receive an invitation to the IPAC national conference. The IPAC Endowment Fund has committed to paying the registration fees for the winners. Each program would be responsible for securing funding for winners to the IPAC conference (travel and hotel). We are hopeful that funding can be solicited from multiple sources: university travel funds for students, student societies, your program resources, local and provincial governments, IPAC regional groups, and local sponsors.

All of the National Student Award winners will be asked to participate in an E-poster session describing their best piece of research or analysis.

A jury will select and rank the three best E-poster presentations for the Thought Leadership Awards. The Gold winner will receive $1000, the Silver winner will receive $500, and the Bronze winner will receive $250. The winners will also be recognized on the IPAC and CAPPa web sites.

A social event will be jointly organized to honour all the participants and the National Student and Thought Leadership Award winners. In 2014 the winners will be announced at the Celebration of Excellence Reception on Monday, June 2 in Edmonton.

We look forward to receiving notification of your top students by April 1, 2014.

For each nomination, please include:

- nominator's name and contact information
- nominee's name and contact information;
- a brief bio (no more than 100 words); and
- synopsis of accomplishment (i.e., top student, best, paper, project or research, etc.)

Please forward all nominations to youngb@uvic.ca. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Belle Young at youngb@uvic.ca; 250-721-8056, or Gabriella Ciampini at gciampini@ipac.ca; 416-924-8787 x223.

Internships

Council of the Federation Youth Internship

The Council of the Federation Secretariat is now accepting applications from across Canada for its 2014/2015 Youth Internship Program.

The Council of the Federation Youth Internship Program is aimed at encouraging young Canadians to more actively participate in public policy development, public service, government, and political life. It provides young people with hands-on work experience and an opportunity to improve their understanding of how intergovernmental relations operate in the Canadian federation.

Located in Ottawa, this paid internship begins in August 2014 and continues for a period of 12 months. Applicants must be aged 25 and under, have graduated from an undergraduate or graduate program at a recognized university, and be legally able to work in Canada. Applicants must demonstrate an interest in Canadian politics and federalism, and be able to communicate in English and French.

The application deadline is May 29 2014.
