TD Bank Group provides Funding for SPPA
Course: AP/PPAS 4110 3.00

The School of Public Policy and Administration is very pleased to announce that the TD Bank Group has agreed to provide continued funding over the next four years for our Regional Economic Development course that is taught by Professor Frank Miele.

The 4th year course has been offered at the SPPA since 2007 and is cross-listed with Economics 4110. Students appreciate the course as it provides a good balance of theory and practice, and exposure to a wide range of issues, such as entrepreneurship, information technologies, marketing, labour market and strategic planning processes, environmental sustainability, tourism, economic impacts analysis, strategic alliances, the impact of media and politicians, and so forth.

Professor Miele has 35 years of Economic Development experience with six Ontario municipalities and has received several prestigious national and international awards in recognition for his outstanding long-term contribution towards enhancing the educational advancement of the profession.

We are very pleased and grateful that TD has decided to continue to provide funding support for this course within our School's undergraduate program. Congratulations to Professor Miele and to all those who worked on the funding application and who support the delivery of this course.
