KEVIN DONOVAN, THE STAR

THE LAW AND ETHICS OF INVESTIGATIVE JOURNALISM.

Kevin Donovan is the longest serving investigative reporter at The Star. He is also an editor and runs the Star's I-Team. Kevin led the coverage of the Jian Ghomeshi and Mayor Rob Ford stories, and his series on child protection problems with colleague Moira Welsh led to a new law in Ontario. Kevin has investigated government, charities, businesses, lawyers, doctors and many other groups and individuals. His investigation of the ORNGE air ambulance service led to an overhaul of the agency, along with probes by government and the police. Other stories have led to the creation of new prescription drug policies to protect the public, and the exposure of backroom deals by officials at all levels of government.

ARE YOU THINKING OF GRADUATE SCHOOL?

DO YOU HAVE A GRADE POINT AVERAGE OF A- OR HIGHER?

Apply for an Ontario Graduate Scholarship or Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council Scholarship and be eligible to receive a $1000 LA&PS Undergraduate Incentive Award (details below)

This incentive award is to encourage our best undergraduates to apply for external awards, such as Federal Tri-Council (SSHRC, NSERC, CIHR) or Ontario Graduate Scholarships and to consider attending graduate programs in LA&PS

The LA&PS Undergraduate Incentive Award, will be given to every LA&PS undergraduate student who (1) applies for a SSHRC or OGS AND (2) who is accepted into a graduate program in LA&PS and chooses to enrol in that program. Once you register into your graduate program in LA&PS, the $1000 will be posted to your student account. Many of our best students do not apply for graduate awards they may be eligible for because it's a lot of work to put together an application in your final year of undergraduate studies. We want to make that effort worth your time with a $1000 Incentive Award.

The Faculty of Graduate Studies has scheduled an additional Information Session on how to apply for Graduate Student Scholarships (i.e. offered by SSHRC, NSERC, CIHR and OGS), to be held on Monday, October 30th from 4:30pm to 6:00pm in the Senate Chamber N940 Ross Building.

7th Annual International Conference on Law, Regulations and Public Policy (LRPP 2018)

11 - 12 June 2018 - Singapore

Conference Theme

The laws of the land lay the foundations of peace and order, and to ensure people progress in all aspects of their lives – whether in business, education, travel, health or recreation. The role of public officials is to create, scrutinize, implement and uphold the laws in order to protect the rights of every individual, corporate entity or institution.

Educators of law thus possess the task of not only shaping each and every generation of legal practitioners into knowledgeable and responsible agents, but also the study of issues which surround the practice of law and its implementation across jurisdictions.

Keynote Speakers

Prof. Gabriel Moens
Professor of Law
Curtin Law School
Australia

"How to Mismanage Organisations: A Lawyer's Perspective"

Prof. Paula Baron
Assoc. Pro-Vice Chancellor
College of Arts, Social Sciences and Commerce
La Trobe University
Australia

"Law, Legal Education and the Rise of the Robolawyers"

Highlights

LRPP 2018 Conference Proceedings will be published and submitted to indexing partner organizations.

Journal of Law and Social Sciences: All authors who present their papers at the conference will be invited to submit an extended version of their research paper for the GSTF Journal of Law and Social Sciences \(JLSS\). All submitted papers will go through blind review process for acceptance and will be published without additional cost (digital).

Best Paper Awards and Best Student Paper Awards will be conferred at the conference (in order to qualify for the award, the paper must be presented at the conference).

LRPP 2018 will also constitute a Special Panel Session.

Panel Proposals are invited for submission. A minimum of three papers centering on a specific topic will be accepted for submission under Panel Category.
