MPPAL Updates

Keddone Dias (MPPAL 2018) named as the new Executive Director of the LAMP Community Health Centre

It was with great pleasure that the Board announced the new Executive Director for LAMP Community Health Centre: Keddone Dias. Keddone is no stranger to LAMP, having been with the organization since 2006. Since the summer of 2017 Keddone has been the Interim Executive Director, and previous to that held the roles of Director of Community Programs and Program Director, Creating Global Citizens in the organization. Serving as Interim Executive Director, Keddone has further developed her knowledge of the health care sector and the communities served, and enhanced her leadership profile with funders and community partners. She has provided excellent support to the Board and to the leadership team and staff, and is positioned well to continue to develop and nurture relationships in Etobicoke (south and central) as well as the East Mississauga community.

Keddone is a candidate for the Master's of Public Policy, Administration and Law from York University (expected to graduate in October 2018) and holds a Bachelor of Commerce - Finance from Ryerson University. She also completed the Community Health Leadership Program through University of Toronto's Rotman School of Management in 2017.

Congratulations!
