MPPAL UPDATES:

MPPALers launch Millennial Outlook series

The much-anticipated first-release of MPPAL student articles is just out in April/May’s issue of Canadian Government Executive magazine.

Under the banner of Millennial Outlook, three insightful articles by Yunus Jawaheer, Lauren Inouye, and Kiran Hamid are featured. Professor John Wilkins introduces the new series and highlights students’ preoccupation with people issues as a precursor to capacity development for good public policy making. Their articles are on pages 24-28: https://canadiangovernmentexecutive.ca/dig/25_02/24/.

Eight more MPPAL Class of 2020 articles will be showcased in upcoming issues. The authors are Joana Jabson, Asare Kester-Akrofi, Monica Mann, Richard Mohammed, Sindiswa Moyo, Kelly Reyes, Antoinette Sarpong, and Andres Urrutia Bustos.

CGE Managing Editor Marcello Sukhdeo offers some welcome words on the series and invites prospective authors to contribute articles: https://canadiangovernmentexecutive.ca/dig/25_02/6/.

CGE is a leading practitioner magazine, with a readership of more than 65,000 senior public executives in Canada and abroad. The body of work produced adds to MPPAL’s reputation for excellence.

Call for nominations for the
Foster – Greene Excellence in Public Policy, Administration and Law
MPPAL Alumni Award

Nomination Deadline is Monday, September 30, 2019

2019 marks the 10th anniversary of the graduation of the first cohort of our Master of Public Policy, Administration and Law (MPPAL) students. On this occasion, the York University School of Public Policy and Administration Alumni Network (YUSPPAAN) is pleased to announce the establishment of the commemorative MPPAL Alumni Award named after the program’s two inaugural Directors - Professors Ian Greene and Lorne Foster - who were instrumental to the program’s success.

Terms of Reference:

The Foster – Greene Award for Excellence in Public Policy, Administration and Law recognizes an alumnus/alumna of the MPPAL program whose work has demonstrably and significantly advanced social justice, human rights, ethics and good governance in congruence with the MPPAL program’s founding principles. The Award recipient will normally have min. 10 years of work experience in the broader public/NGO sector.

The Award will be formally presented at the Annual SPPA Student, Alumni and Community Recognition Awards Dinner on November 21, 2019.

Nominations for the above award are invited from faculty, staff, individual students and alumni, as well as associations of students, alumni, and friends of the School. Nominations require a one page statement of the accomplishments of the individual as well as a copy of his or her resume.

Please forward materials, or questions, to: YUSPPAAN@gmail.com

Lynda.com is moving to LinkedIn Learning on July 30

LinkedIn has announced that it will be retiring Lynda.com and replacing it with LinkedIn Learning.

York University will be migrating to LinkedIn Learning effective Tuesday, July 30. During the migration period the service will be unavailable for up to 18 hours. Once the migration is complete, the current yorku.ca/Lynda website will be redirected to a new York U LinkedIn Learning site.

Faculty, staff and students do not need a LinkedIn account to have a LinkedIn Learning account – these are separate systems. However, if you do have a LinkedIn account, you can choose to connect it with your LinkedIn Learning account to get personalized course recommendations based on your LinkedIn profile.

All York University students, staff and faculty currently have free access to Lynda.com, offering a combination of dynamic online instructional content, videos and tutorials on the latest technology, software, business and creative skills. University community members will continue to have access to the same great courses, but under the new LinkedIn Learning banner.

Your LinkedIn Learning account will give you:

- unlimited access to more than 5,000 video tutorials covering business, creative and technology topics;
- convenient learning on your schedule, from any desktop or mobile device; and
- helpful resources such as quizzes, exercise files and coding practice windows to reinforce new knowledge.
